ORGANIZATION'S PRIMARY EXEMPT PURPOSE AND ACTIVITY

The National Film Preservation Foundation (NFPF) was created by the U.S. Congress to preserve and to make publicly accessible our nation's film heritage.

The NFPF (1) gives grants to individual public and nonprofit archives and (2) organizes and administers funds for national film preservation and access projects involving many institutions. These programs support the preservation of films not preserved by commercial interests, improve access to film for education and exhibition, and encourage public commitment to the preservation of film as an art form, historical record and cultural resource.

The NFPF awards cash grants as well as grants of preservation services donated by commercial film preservation facilities. In addition, the NFPF allocates and distributes preservation funds secured for national cooperative projects.
